

It has been nearly three months since Tokyo 2020 came to a close. The legacy of the Games has taken root within the city and among its residents, and has begun to shape the future. Continuing on from last month, Tokyo Updates is publishing articles related to the legacy of the Games this month too. We hope you look forward to the next release!

TOKYO UPDATES

MEMBERS CLUB

I Opened the Gateway to an Inclusive Society as a Volunteer with Disabilities at Tokyo 2020

TOKYO2020 2021.11.24

Rapid and Accurate in Emergencies - DX Connecting Government and Citizens

SOCIETY 2021.11.19

A Green Scenario for Tokyo Becoming a World-Leading "Global Financial City"

BUSINESS 2021.11.16

Redefining How We Work. A System for Connecting "Life" and "Work" Created by Women

SOCIETY 2021.11.15

Editor's Choice

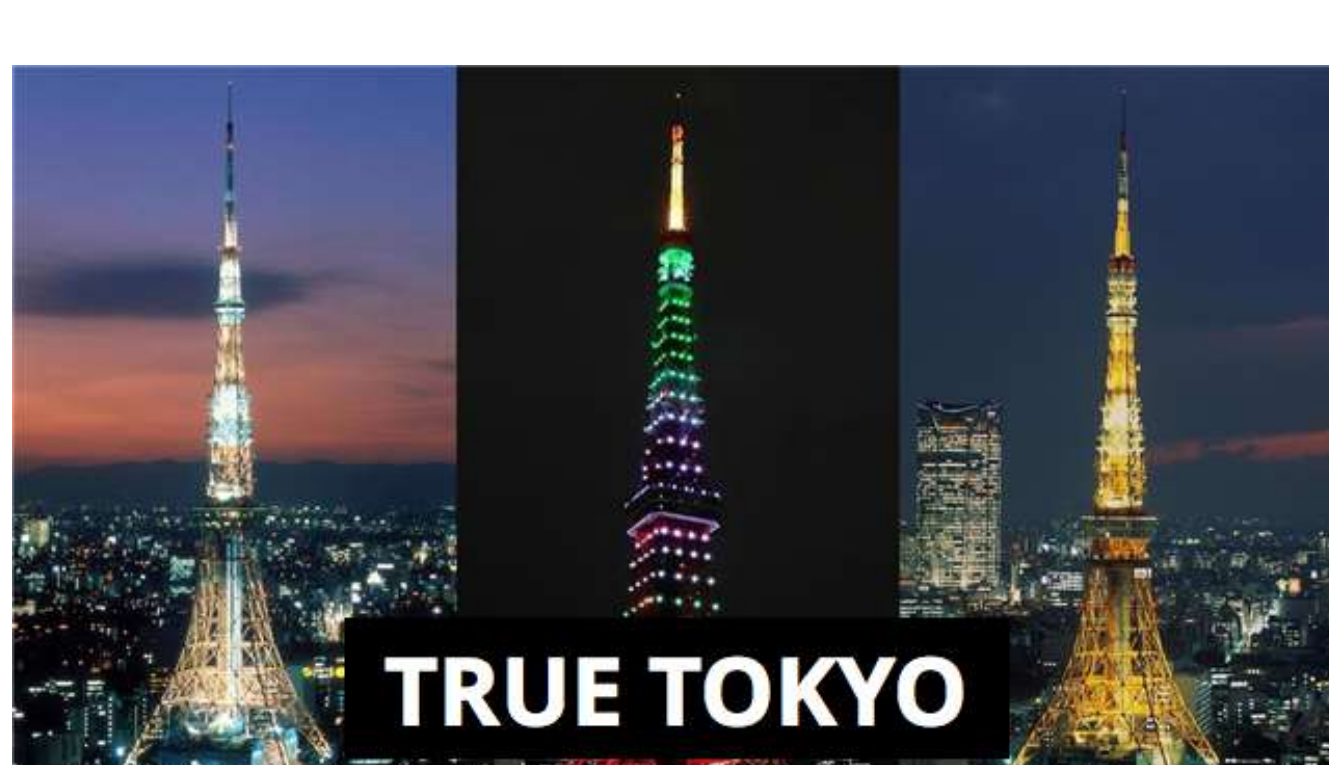

Today, December 1st, is "Tokyo Waterworks Day"—established to commemorate the start of modern waterworks in Tokyo. In association with this, we have picked up past Tokyo Updates article related to water infrastructure. By all means, please take a look.

WOTA's Challenge: Safeguarding Urban Self-sufficiency and Environment with an Autonomous, Decentralized Water Upcycling System

ENVIRONMENT 2021.06.18

-Category-

READ MORE